

RAND HILL PARACORD

May 2016

ABOUT US

We are a small home business located in Upstate NY. We started our journey with paracord because my son wanted to learn to make paracord bracelets. Soon everyone wanted us to make them items. From there our business was born. We now sell on Etsy, Amazon, and our site we built ourselves. We have expanded our color choices to over 33 colors and have shipped items to all corners of the world.

SHIPPING/PAYMENTS

At Rand Hill Paracord we always offer FREE shipping to any address in the USA. We ship items via USPS First Class Mail. We accept PayPal, Etsy credits, and all major Credit Cards

IN THE WORKS

Partnership with another local business in our area, <http://www.topdogchallengecoins.com>, they sell collectable coins with Department of Corrections and Fire/Ems insignia on them and is now selling our paracord keychains as well.

We are proud to sponsor this great event for the 2nd year in a row

ABOUT THE K9K

On February 25, 2012, Andrew Elliott Rusticus went on a training run as part of an agility test to be a K9 handler with the Grand Rapids Police Department. He suffered a heart attack and ran into the arms of Jesus. Police officers skills, thoughtfulness, willingness to serve are all part of their daily duties to our community. A K9 officer and his canine partner develop a close bond while carrying out these responsibilities. This event will give runners the opportunity to run a 9k or a 3k (with or without your canine on either event) along the banks of the Grand River.

SUPPORT

The Andrew Elliott Rusticus Foundation and K9K Race is a non-profit event that will help support the Grand Rapids Police Department Canine Unit Foundation, the Michigan Thin Blue Line, a scholarship honoring Andrew Elliott Rusticus at Trinity Christian College, and Vested Interest in K9s.
